

Construction Project Manager:

KUNJ Construction Corp is always seeking for highly skilled and motivated Construction Project Managers to join our dynamic team. As one of the leading construction management firms, we excel in delivering projects with utmost excellence. The Construction Project Manager will oversee and coordinate various construction projects, ensuring their success within scope, budget, and timeline.

Responsibilities:

- Develop comprehensive project plans, timelines, resources allocation, and budget estimates.
- Coordinate and manage all phases of the construction project, from initiation to completion.
- Develop comprehensive project plans, timelines, and budgets.
- Coordinate all project phases from initiation to completion.
- Facilitate clear communication and work closely with clients, contractors, and internal teams.
- Monitor project progress, identify potential risks, and implement effective risk mitigation strategies.
- Manage project budgets, track expenditures, and identify cost-saving opportunities.
- Ensure compliance with building codes, safety standards, and legal regulations.
- Foster strong relationships with clients, addressing their concerns and ensuring satisfaction.
- Lead and motivate project teams, including engineers, contractors, and subcontractors.
- Prepare regular progress reports, project documentation, and final reports as required.
- Conduct regular site inspections to ensure quality and safety standards are met.
- Implement and maintain project management software and tools for effective project tracking.

Requirements:

- Proven experience, with a minimum of 5 years in managing medium to large-scale projects.
- Past experience with Federal DOD agencies required
- Strong knowledge of construction processes, techniques, and best practices.
- Proficiency in project management software and tools.
- Excellent leadership, communication, and negotiation skills.
- Ability to work under pressure, prioritize tasks, and meet tight deadlines.
- Demonstrated problem-solving and decision-making abilities.
- Project Management Professional (PMP) certification is a plus.

We are proud to offer following benefits:

- Competitive Salary
- Medical And Dental Coverage
- 401k with Employer Match
- Group Life Insurance
- Profit Sharing
- Bonus Program
- Long Term Disability Benefits
- Vacation And Holidays

Join a team committed to professionalism, integrity, and innovation. To apply, submit your resume, cover letter, and certifications to info@kunjcc.com or click on APPLY NOW under job listings to fill out the application form. Please feel free to contact us with your queries. Shortlisted candidates will be contacted for further discussions and interview.

KUNJ Construction Corp is an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity and inclusion within the workplace. We encourage all qualified candidates to apply. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, or veteran status.